History of the Northern Pacific Railway Depot

The role of the Northern Pacific Railroad in the founding and development of the Bismarck community was significant. The NP Depot remains as a symbol of that importance in our city.

Fun Facts:

- Cass Gilbert designed the MN state capitol building and the leftover marble from that project was sent to Bismarck and ground up and used in building the Bismarck Depot structure.
- By 1916, the Northern Pacific Depot was serving 24 passenger trains daily.
- Listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1977.

BISMARCK OVERVIEW

The capital of North Dakota, Bismarck is a hub of culture, history and shopping. Bismarck is the second-most populous city in North Dakota with a metropolitan population of 132,142 in 2017. In 2017, Forbes Magazine ranked Bismarck as the seventh fastest-growing small city in the United States.

The city has developed around downtown Bismarck, the center of historic development. The city's largest shopping center, Kirkwood Mall, is located downtown with several other major national retailers located near the mall. Bismarck's two hospitals, CHI St. Alexius Medical Center, Mid Dakota Clinic, and Sanford Health, are also located downtown.

Bismarck is home to some of the state's best activities. Attractions like the Dakota Zoo, the North Dakota Heritage Center and State Museum and Fort Abraham Lincoln are popular among visitors. One of Bismarck's best features, the Missouri River, offers a scenic setting for boating, fishing, and relaxation.

Five colleges and one university are located in Bismarck, contributing to the city's economy and workforce. The University of Mary is a four-year university with 3,600 students; Bismarck State College is a two-year public college, and a member of the North Dakota University System with 3,800 students.
